The triptych (H. 16-13/16" x W. 20-1/4" overall) showing the MADONNA AND CHILD AND SAINTS was executed by Berlinghiero, the Elder, active in Italy, the Luca region, about 1200 to 1240 A.D. It has been in various collections, including that of Adolphe Stoclet in Brussels during the 1930's. It is a gift to the Museum of the John Huntington Art and Polytechnic Trust.
